Administrative History

The Richardson Printing Company, of Indianapolis, Indiana, was started by Charles Michael Richardson, who was born June 26, 1880 to Hiram V. and Anna Elizabeth (Stumpf) Richardson. He was the oldest of three, including May C. and Hester A. Charles was graduated from Emmerich Manual Training High School and had been involved with the printing business since graduation. He married Harriet G. Carr on April 16, 1930 in Marion County, Indiana. Charles owned the printing company for 30 years at the time of his death, on July 19, 1948. He is buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis. The company was managed by Claude E. and Robert E. Yates until it was liquidated in 1974.
